The Faroe Islands are famed for its nature, so if you are planning a visit and at the same time would like to get an authentic Viking experience, you can't miss spending a night in the beautiful nature in a Viking tent! With our stay you will get unforgettable new memories, live out your inner Viking and experience what is one of the Faroe Islands' most beautiful destination.

Whether you take a longer trip around the Faroe Islands, a few days tour or even if you go visit for just one day... Sleeping in a Viking tent in the Faroese nature is something you will remember forever. The beauty of the place, the solitude and serenity and the campfire...

SLEEP IN A VIKING TENT IN THE FAROE ISLANDS

We offer an overnight stay for two persons in a Viking tent in the remote and scenic village Saksun on Streymoy Island. The stay includes:

- A rustic-style viking tent accommodation - a cosy tent camp with campfire and a Viking double bed
- Meals - Dinner and breakfast - test your fire cooking skills
- Scenic landscapes and sights - Enjoy the enchanting nature and visit the local sights in Saksun

There is something about the Faroese nature...

...and a night at the campfire in a Viking tent is something that points that out. An amazing experience, especially if you come from a very populated part of the world.

The magic of the Faroe Islands never wears off. The sense of space and freedom you feel can't be described. You will have to experience it and to get that authentic experience, to breath the fresh air and feel the nature...

WHAT TO DO IN THE VIKING CAMP AND IN SAKSUN?

- You will have some time to see the location. Saksun is located in this picturesque valley Saksunardalur. Through the valley, the river Storá has its source at Saksun.
- You can walk to the lagoon at the foot of the village, visit the church, that was built in 1858, and visit Dúvugarðar Museum, that functions as an active sheep farm as well. If you have wanderlust, you can take a long walk in Saksun. Paths stretches far between mountains, where you can see waterfalls - and even walk to the next valley, Tjørnuvíksskarð.
- You might want to grab something to drink and relax in the Viking camp to round off your day.
- Extra Options and Upper Wishes: Horseback riding or ask us for further adventures.
